

Distinguished Author Award

The CPA Journal
New York State Society of CPA's
Distinguished Author Award for 1999

Roosevelt Hotel
May 9, 2000

Edgar Gee is a friend of mine.
1992 was the the year he burned the line
To discuss with me his famous case,
Smokey Mountain Secret he whispered,
cutting to the chase.

Years later with victory complete,
I wanted him to share his feat
Of winning the largest case of its kind.
In San Diego he was wine and dine.

We've formed a team you might say,
Willis, Edgar, and this other CPA.
Articles, cases, books and more,
All to win the independent contractor war.

We're honored and humbled,
And for boys from the south,
Coming to New York
Beats hanging with confederate roustabouts.

When you give 100%,
You usually get more in return.
Thank you and God bless.
With that I'll adjourn.

by: Michael J. Knight
"That other CPA"
May 8, 2000